January 21, 2011

ROBBINS NAMED LEGAL ELITE, SUPER LAWYER

Neal Robbins was named as a Legal Young Gun and Rising Star by business and legal magazines.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – Neal Robbins, a member of the Winston-Salem law firm of Robbins Kreider PLLC, was named a 2011 Young Gun in North Carolina law by Business North Carolina magazine and a Rising Star in Business Law by the magazine Super Lawyers.

To compile the tenth edition of Business North Carolina’s Legal Elite the magazine distributed nomination ballots to more than 20,000 active members of the North Carolina State Bar. The Young Guns list represents the best lawyers under 40 in North Carolina. Only 46 attorneys made the Young Guns list, less than one-half of one percent of all young lawyers. The Rising Stars represent the top 2.5% of lawyers under 40 in North Carolina.

“I was surprised and humbled to be included in each of these publications,” Robbins said. He also noted, “I am particularly pleased that these publications base their selection on peer reviews and objective metrics. It is my goal as a lawyer to advocate for my clients while retaining the respect and friendship of my colleagues.”

Robbins, a native of Asheboro, North Carolina, is a 2007 graduate of the Wake Forest University School of Law and the WFU Babcock Graduate School of Business, where he earned an MBA and Juris Doctor. He is an honor graduate of N.C. State University where he received a B.S. in chemical engineering and was a Caldwell Fellow and Park Scholar. He is active in the North Carolina Bar Association and the Federalist Society for Law and Public Policy. His practice is focused on business litigation and transactions. 2011 marks his second year as a Rising Star in Super Lawyers.

Robbins Kreider PLLC is a full service law firm with offices located at 411 N. Cherry Street in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The firm was founded in 2009. You can learn more about them on their website, www.robbinskreider.com.

Super Lawyers is an annual publication of Thomson Reuters. North Carolina Business is a monthly publication focused on the economy and businesses of North Carolina.

###